introduction to Sikh Americans

- 99%: Percent of all the people wearing Turbans in U.S. that are Sikhs
- 1: Sikhs believe in one God
- 5: Sikhism is the fifth largest religion in the world
- 100: Number of years Sikhs have been in the U.S.
- 700,000: Population of Sikhs in the U.S.
- 25,000,000: Population of Sikhs worldwide
Sikhism is a distinct religion, separate from Hinduism and Islam.

Sikh Americans are involved in many aspects of American life working as teachers, doctors, law enforcement officers and entrepreneurs.

Sikhs believe in One God, Equality, Freedom of Religion, and Community Service.

Sikhs keep uncut hair and cover it with a turban which represents a commitment to equality and justice.

For more information about Sikh Americans, please call 877-917-4547 or visit www.saldef.org